-Judge Mackey has informed Mr. John W. Walker, sheriff elect of the county of Chester, that the Supreme Court has recently decided that a sheriff elected at a special election holds his office for four years. Mr. Walker's term will, therefore, contine until August, 1879, four years from the time of his election. We think this rather a singular decision. - Williamsburg Republican.

-The term of court commencing next Monday is one of unusual interest and importance. We learn that Judge Reed is not to preside, but that Judge Cook will take his place. the first Monday of each month. It no doubt will afford Judge Cooke pleasure to preside in this his old home and the scene of his former efforts at the bar, but we are frank to say that existing circumstances would with any ordinary man, render the bath. A quarterly conference will be embarassing except perhaps, to one S. C. R. R. to carry those wishing to atminister justice without fear or favor.

'THE GREAT SHOW .- Howes' Great London Circus and Menagerie. A magnificent street display, rare collection of animals, and an excellent circus performance may be expected at Orangeburg Wednesday, Ostober 27. The Memphis Avalanch says: Never, except on the celebration of Mardi Gras, has our city witnessed such a gathering of people as that which assembled on the streets yesterday to witness the advent of Howes' Great London Circus and Menagerie. Long before the hour appointed for the place for one year. appearance of the grand cavalcade people began to assemble on the princpal streets, along the proposed line of march and when the first notes of band which headed the procession were heard, every available space which could afford a good view was occupied. Windows, balconies, awnings and sidewalks were erammed with people cager to see the street display, about the magnificence of which so much was said. That they were not disappointed was manifested by the not disappointed was manifested by the exclamations of surprise and admiration that greeted the living panogama at every point. Unquestionably it was more beautiful than any similar street enterpolar to the property of the talnment ever offered to our people, and | was but the foretaste of the inimitable performance that was seen later under the canvass. The cavalcade was many squares in length, and was composed of cavaliers, knights and ladies on horseback, Roman Chariots drawn by horses four abreast, a cage full of African hyenas, among which fearlessly sat the negro keeper, Irquois Indians dressed in their fontastic costumes, painted, and carrying implements of Indian warfare, the five performing elephants and a camel, a number of wagons on which were beautifully painted allegorical pictures, and containing the wild animals belonging to Sanger's English Menagerie. The striking features of the display were two magnificent charlots drawn by richly caparisoned horses. These chariots were handsomely painted and gilded. and displayed on the sides a number of mirrors, which, as they moved along, multiplied and reflected the gorgeous pageantry, producing a pleasant effect on the beholders. To attempt a minute description of the display would be almost an endless task, as each feature of it presented something entirely new and far eclipsing any circus display ever made in the South.

Economy. - " Straw berries and cream" are far more palatable and R. R. will pass through Orangeburg conducive to health than either pork or pills.

SOUTHEASTERN

ADVOCATE

There is soon to be a paper entitled as bove, issued from this office, and pubished in the interests of the M. E. Church n this portion of our work.

Since the unwise removal of the Charleston Advocate, our work has been enlarging and extending in this section. and demands multiplying for a local organ. The Charleston Advocate was for two years published in Charleston. It was during this eventful period in the history of our cause in the South, one of the most important auxiliaries of our work. Its removal left a vacant place here which has not since been filled. It is an old saying, "that blessings brighten as they take their flight." This was em phatically true in reference to our daper for this coast. Many were taken by sur prise at its sudden removal and were anxious for its return. If we had been as fully advertised of the wants and wishes of the people in this section, before the transfer of that paper to Atlanta, Ga., as we were after it was done, it would never have gone from us. The Methodist Advocate is a good paper and ably conducted, but it is too distant from the Atlantic coast to meet our local wants in this section. Our work on this coast Ble each. Condensed Milk Eudiffers in some particulars from our work in the section of Atlanta, or the valley of the Mississippi. Its peculiar phases cannot be met by those who live at a distance from us, and are not conversant with the exigencies and demands of this section. The people will have greater interest for

Their Own Paper, that lives and sympathizes with them than can be awakeded for one coming to them from a distance, and managed by comparatve strangers.
It will be larger than the FREE CITI

Issued Bi-weekly, at the low price of ONE DOLLAR a YEAR Payment in advance.

Some of the ablest writers of our church in this section will contribute to its columns. Methodist Ministers of the M. E. Church, traveling and local are agents for this paper. Let those who read this notice act at once in getting up a list of subscribers.

All communications for the Advocate should be directed to us, at this place, A. WEBSTER,
